about

With over ten years as a Video Producer, I blend a deep understanding of filmmaking, motion graphics, and 3D animation fusing creative vision with technical expertise. I specialise in using storytelling to transform complex concepts into engaging, accessible narratives.

Whether leading team projects or solo endeavours, my adaptability and unwavering commitment shine through.

In my current role at Queue-it, a leading SaaS company, I have played a key part in revolutionizing our brand strategy with innovative video content, yielding notable results.

Currently based in Copenhagen.
